1. Life with NF- 2007 Symposium DVD

The DVD features all six hours of the 2007 fall symposium. Dr. Vincent Riccardi, Dr. Jan Friedman and Dr. Eva Dombie are just some of the presenters you will see on this DVD. The panel of adult presenters, who share their journey of living with NF, is definitely not to be missed!

2. A Parent's Guide to the Learning Disabilities associated with Neurofibromatosis Type 1

A unique guide designed as a resource for parents of children with both NF1 and learning disabilities – at all school ages. Whether your child is just entering kindergarten, or is into his/her high school years, you will find relevant material to address his/her educational needs in this guide. Included in the booklet is information on:

- Explaining NF1 to Teachers
- Cognitive Functioning with NF1
- Social Challenges Common to NF1
- NF1 and Physical Activity
- Attention Deficit Disorders and NF1

3.. Youth Guide to Understanding Neurofibromatosis

This resource was created with the help of young people and answers frequently asked questions about NF. This brochure will assist parents and youth alike in better understanding living with NF.

4. NF-Kids to Kids

Available in DVD or VHS format, this resource features children ages 9 to 19 sharing their experiences on living with NF. This is a must see for children who are newly diagnosed with NF and for children experiencing new symptoms.
